

The 2/1 Game Force System

This course covers the sequences that comprise the 2/1 Game Force system. It includes several treatments that are not integral to the system, but that are generally adopted by partnerships that play 2/1.

This course consists of ten (10) sessions. Each session is approximately 90 minutes in duration.

This is an advanced course; basic bidding skills are assumed.

A minimum of 8 students is required to conduct the course. The cost of the course is $250 and includes all materials. Registration closes two weeks prior to commencement of the course.

Course material includes:

- The theory and advantages gained through the 2/1 System
- Exactly what do we mean by “Game Forcing”? (It’s not what you think)
- What’s unaffected by playing 2/1?
- The Game-Forcing sequences following a major-suit opening
- Distinction between styles of 2/1 (Lawrence and Hardy)
- The Forcing (and “Semi-Forcing”) Notrump response
- Sequences following the Forcing Notrump response
- The 1♦ - 2♣ sequence
- Inverted Minor Suit Raises
- New Minor Forcing (NMF)
- Fourth Suit Forcing (4SF)
