

Valley Forge Bridge Club

Directors and Teachers

Updated: 29 July 2018

Cheryl Abrams is our newest club director. Cheryl obtained her Certification earlier this year, and is now regularly directing most of the Saturday morning limited games and the Wednesday evening game.

Ed Alcott is a club director. Ed directs regularly on Wednesday afternoons. Ed also works at three other clubs in the area. Ed joined the Club in the summer of 2017.

Belinda Rose Anderson teaches Beginner and Advanced Beginner Bridge at the Club. Belinda has been with the Club since its opening in early 2016.

Ed Craig is a club director. Ed was working previously at the Bridge Club of Delaware County. He started working VFBC games in April.

Dave LeGrow is a club director. Dave directs when nobody else is available. He teaches Advanced Bridge classes at the Club; he has been with the Club since its opening in 2016.

Rob Maier is a club director and an ACBL tournament director; he directs regularly at the Club (Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays) when he is not assigned to a tournament. Rob has been with the Club since its opening in 2016.

Don Smolen is a club director. Don splits his time seasonally between here and Florida. Don joined the Club in the spring of 2017.